

PERMIT APPLICATION CHECKLIST - DEMOLITION

Demolition of existing buildings, and structures

Forms required to be included as part of the Permit Application:

1. Application for Permit to Construct or Demolish Form
2. Building Permit Authorization Form (if applicable, attached) - Required if someone other than the property owner is the permit applicant.
3. Approval documents required by an applicable law.

Information required to be included as part of the Permit Application

1. Site Plan illustrating information such as, but not limited to, the following:
 - Property lines and property dimensions
 - Location and dimensions of buildings
 - Location of and distances of municipal drains
 - On-site sewage system location and clearance distances
 - Municipal roadway and driveway location
 - North arrow
2. Designated Substance Report (where applicable)
3. Large Buildings (see Note #1, below)
4. Confirmation that arrangements have been made with the proper authorities for the cutting off and plugging of all water, sewer, gas, electric and telephone or other utilities and services
5. Describe the method of demolition, including the methods of discarding waste material and location of where the waste material has been taken

Two sets of drawings and information are required to be included as part of the Permit Application Submission.

All drawings shall be legible, to scale, dimensioned and provide sufficient information that describes the extent of the proposed work.

Note # 1

A professional engineer is required to undertake the general review of the project during demolition, where:

- a) The building exceeds 3 storeys in building height or 6459 square feet (600m²) in building area;
- b) The building structure includes pre-tensioned or post-tensioned members;
- c) It is proposed that the demolition will extend below the level of the footings of any adjacent building and occur within the angle of repose of the soil, as shown from the bottom of such footings, or;
- d) No explosives or lasers are to be used during the course of demolition.

Conclusion

This form summarizes the minimum required information to be submitted, as part of a permit application, in accordance with the Building Code Act and the Municipality of South Dundas Building By-Laws. Every attempt has been made to provide a complete list. However, should the requirement for additional documents and/or approvals be determined during the processing of this application you will be notified. Please ensure that your permit application is complete. Note that incomplete applications may not be accepted for processing and are not subject to the time periods within which a permit is issued or refused as prescribed in the Ontario Building Code.
