

Pre-Application to become a Habitat for Humanity Homeowner

Qualifying Criteria – please initial

- I understand that Habitat for Humanity homes are not given away. I have a steady income and the ability to purchase a home at fair market value with a Habitat for Humanity Cornwall & The Counties interest-free mortgage. Mortgage payments will never exceed 30% of the total household income, before taxes.
- My current home is unsafe, overcrowded or exceeds 30% of the gross household income.
- I am willing to partner with Habitat for Humanity Cornwall & The Counties. This will include completing 500 hours of volunteer work and completing the Home Owner's Education Modules.
- I am a Canadian citizen or landed immigrant, and I have lived in SDG, Cornwall or Akwesasne for at least two (2) years. Please note, as this is a South Dundas project, preference will be given to South Dundas residents.

How many people are in your family/household? (please include the children for whom you share custody).

Please list the ages of all children in your family/household (please include children for whom you share custody).

Please total the earned income for all people over 18 years of age living in your household. This sum is earned income only – it includes only money earned from a job(s). Do not include spousal/child support, pensions, Canada Child Tax Benefit, Disability Benefits, etc.

Based on Statistics Canada 2019 LICO Table (+2% ann.inc.), before tax numbers, minimum earned income $25,900

No. of people in family	Total family earned income	No. of people in family	Total family earned income
2	$29,294.54	5	$49,593.79
3	$36,013.45	6	$55,933.98
4	$43,726.97	7	$62,274.18

If you believe that you meet these criteria, you may qualify to purchase a Habitat for Humanity home and to become a Partner Family.
